

Fly to the Bregenz Festival on the Floating Stage

20. – 23. August 2009

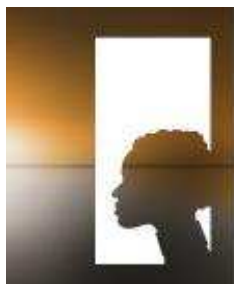

Preliminary Program

Fly in to enjoy a cultural highlight: IFFR Germany / Austria has tried to present you with an interesting programme around the main event: Giuseppe Verdi's AIDA on the Floating Stage at the Bregenz Festival!

Thursday, 20. 8. 2009 Those who want to fly in without timing problems will be expected from noon to 1500 hrs at Friedrichshafen airport (EDNY) for snacks and refreshments (restaurant terrace of the Luftsportclub LSC). At 1500 hrs, bus transfer to the hotel Buchhorner Hof for check-in; later in the evening a little walk to have dinner.

Friday, 21. 8. 2009 For all those who will have arrived on Thursday, there is the possibility to come out to the airport again to welcome today's arrivals, alternatively we have planned a visit to the production site of the Zeppelin NT. Those who arrive today should come in by 1400 hrs latest for snacks and refreshments at the LSC restaurant. At 1500 hrs, bus transfer to the hotel. The festival evening will start with a ship's cruise directly to the festival stage, a festival menu being served on board. The ship will depart at 1815 hrs sharp from the harbour, reached by a leisurely 15 min walk, or by shuttle, should the weather be inclement. The cruise will depart in any case; should the performance be cancelled due to rain, the ship will return to Friedrichshafen soon after. Normally, we will be back at our hotel shortly after midnight.

Saturday, 22. 8. 2009 At 0930 hrs we will depart for a visit of the Zeppelin - Museum, followed by lunch on the museum's spectacular terrace with a view of the lake. Later, we will make a short bus tour in the vicinity and see Iren Dornier's new amphibian plane and the newly built Dornier museum. By 1730 hrs we will be back at the hotel, in time for dinner at the hotels excellent restaurant.

Sunday, 23. 8. 2009 At about 0930 hrs, transfer to the airport.
